

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CRAMER JOHNSON WIGGINS AND ASSOCIATES, INC. CJW RESPONDS TO RECENT CATASTROPHES

Orlando, FL, July 15, 2010- Responding to client needs, a team of CJW adjusters has been involved in the recent hail storms in Oklahoma City, OK and flooding in Nashville, TN.

Led by some of the industry's most experienced and qualified Executive General Adjusters, CJW has been on the ground in both locations providing property-adjusting services to the commercial insurance market, which includes many of the leading commercial insurers, both domestic and international. The recent efforts again confirm the ability of CJW to be able and ready to assist clients throughout the United States and Caribbean.

“Responding to our clients who support us daily in a time of need is just what we do at CJW. Our key clients who utilize our services daily can count on us when they need us, says” Thomas Simoncic, President. “By utilizing our EGA's and attaching some of our senior property adjusters to them, we can respond quickly and thoroughly when isolated events produce large and complex property losses in places like Oklahoma, Tennessee or the floods in Rhode Island or large one-off losses caused by a fire, explosion, etc.”

About CJW Associates

CJW Associates was formed in 1981 and now has over 150 employees specializing in both property and liability. Services include appraisals, full or partial investigations, adjustments and surveys.
